S.T.A.R.S. (Striving Toward Adulthood Responsibly and Spiritually) is designed for females ages 13-18. The program promotes personal excellence and helps young ladies develop physically, mentally and spiritually into mature responsible adults. There is no cost to participate.

S.T.A.R.S. covers such topics as spiritual development, dressing for success, personal relationships, etiquette, educational opportunities, money management, personal hygiene, nutrition and various other topics. The young ladies have also participated in the Annual Race for the Cure and various community service projects. The program goal is to provide experiences that encourage positive personal growth and provides a basis for future decision making. The young ladies are encouraged to identify their spiritual gifts and talents. The program culminates with a graduation ceremony.

For further information you may leave a message for the S.T.A.R.S. Program Manager, Crystal Madison, with the Galilee Community Development Corporation office, (240) 455-4208. This application may be returned via email or to the GCDC office at the above address.
